

DAR ES SALAAM UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION (DUCE)

A Constituent College of the University of Dar es Salaam

Gender Awareness
and Transformation through
Education

Trinity College Dublin
Coláiste na Tríonóide, Baile Átha Cliath
The University of Dublin

Introduction

The Gender Awareness and Transformation through Education (GATE) Project is a partnership project between DUCE and TCD designed to support the development of gender expertise and capacities in research and education at DUCE through:

- ❖ training of current and future academics in gender-based research and education;
- ❖ establishment of a centre for excellence within DUCE to provide gender expertise in research and teaching to the College; and, over time, to other HEIs nationally and regionally;
- ❖ participatory action-based research to ensure that the methodology, methods, and theoretical learnings can be gathered and disseminated through peer-review journals and public events.

Fig 1: Participants during presentation of the hands on activities. Looking on is the TCD PI and facilitator Dr. Susan Murphy

Overarching Ambition

To support the delivery of institutional collaboration partnership to facilitate capacity-building and development of a Centre for Excellence on Gender Equality and Female Empowerment in Higher Education in Tanzania.

Fig 2: DUCE Principal (Prof. Bernadeta Killian) officiating one of the trainings on integrating gender into research held at DUCE. Seated from right are the Deputy Principal administration (Dr. Method Samwel); Deputy Principal academics (Dr. Julius Mbuna); TCD PI (Dr. Susan Murphy) and the Gender Unit Coordinator (Dr. Ikupa Moses).

Activities done by June 2019

- ❖ Project Work plan and establishment of the external advisory board - January 2019;
- ❖ Institutional self assessment for mapping the status of gender equity and mainstreaming at DUCE - April to May 2019

- ❖ DUCE Staff Training Workshops on integrating gender into research – April and May 2019
- ❖ Establishment of Women’s Caucus of academicians within DUCE – May 2019;
- ❖ First GATE article published.

Fig 3: Hands-on activity during one of the trainings on integrating gender into research held at TPC building – DUCE in May 2019

Forthcoming Activities

- ❖ Train two gender experts from DUCE at PhD and Post-doc level
- ❖ Capacity building workshops for DUCE staff and students
- ❖ Establishment of Centre for Excellence at DUCE
- ❖ Develop protocols & systems for best practice data management for Gender Unit at DUCE
- ❖ Dissemination, Education and Communication.

Project Team

- ❖ Dr. Susan Murphy (TCD PI)
- ❖ Dr. Perpetua Urio (DUCE PI)
- ❖ Dr. Ikupa Moses (team member)
- ❖ Dr. Christina Raphael (team member)
- ❖ Dr. Consolata Chua (team member)
- ❖ Linda Lumbasi (Project Coordinator)

Media links

www.gateproject.net

@GateProject1

GateProject1

Funded and Supported by:

Irish Aid

An Roinn Gnóthaí Eachtracha agus Trádála
Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade

DAR ES SALAAM UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION (DUCE)

A Constituent College of the University of Dar es Salaam

Gender Awareness
and Transformation through
Education

Trinity College Dublin
Coláiste na Tríonóide, Baile Átha Cliath
The University of Dublin

Introduction

The Gender Awareness and Transformation through Education (GATE) Project is a partnership project between DUCE and TCD designed to support the development of gender expertise and capacities in research and education at DUCE through:

- ❖ training of current and future academics in gender-based research and education;
- ❖ establishment of a centre for excellence within DUCE to provide gender expertise in research and teaching to the College; and, over time, to other HEIs nationally and regionally;
- ❖ participatory action-based research to ensure that the methodology, methods, and theoretical learnings can be gathered and disseminated through peer-review journals and public events.

Fig 1: Participants during presentation of the hands on activities. Looking on is the TCD PI and facilitator Dr. Susan Murphy

Overarching Ambition

To support the delivery of institutional collaboration partnership to facilitate capacity-building and development of a Centre for Excellence on Gender Equality and Female Empowerment in Higher Education in Tanzania.

Fig 2: DUCE Principal (Prof. Bernadeta Killian) officiating one of the trainings on integrating gender into research held at DUCE. Seated from right are the Deputy Principal administration (Dr. Method Samwel); Deputy Principal academics (Dr. Julius Mbuna); TCD PI (Dr. Susan Murphy) and the Gender Unit Coordinator (Dr. Ikupa Moses).

Activities done by June 2019

- ❖ Project Work plan and establishment of the external advisory board - January 2019;
- ❖ Institutional self assessment for mapping the status of gender equity and mainstreaming at DUCE - April to May 2019

- ❖ DUCE Staff Training Workshops on integrating gender into research – April and May 2019
- ❖ Establishment of Women’s Caucus of academicians within DUCE – May 2019;
- ❖ First GATE article published.

Fig 3: Hands-on activity during one of the trainings on integrating gender into research held at TPC building – DUCE in May 2019

Forthcoming Activities

- ❖ Train two gender experts from DUCE at PhD and Post-doc level
- ❖ Capacity building workshops for DUCE staff and students
- ❖ Establishment of Centre for Excellence at DUCE
- ❖ Develop protocols & systems for best practice data management for Gender Unit at DUCE
- ❖ Dissemination, Education and Communication.

Project Team

- ❖ Dr. Susan Murphy (TCD PI)
- ❖ Dr. Perpetua Urio (DUCE PI)
- ❖ Dr. Ikupa Moses (team member)
- ❖ Dr. Christina Raphael (team member)
- ❖ Dr. Consolata Chua (team member)
- ❖ Linda Lumbasi (Project Coordinator, TCD)

Media links

www.gateproject.net

@GateProject1

GateProject1

Funded and Supported by:

Irish Aid

An Roinn Gnóthaí Eachtracha agus Trádála
Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade